

B

AB

A

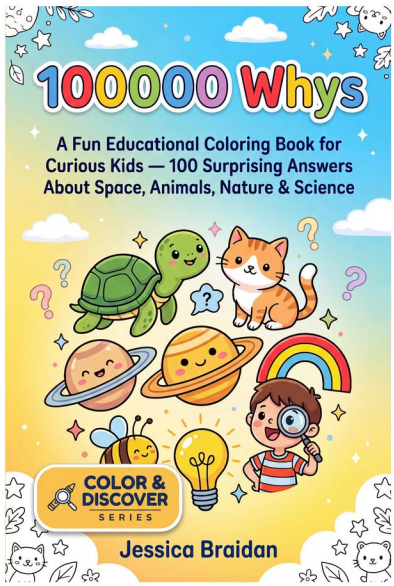

O

Did you know?

Why do we have different blood types?

Answer: Blood types are like different versions of a recipe. Some people have “Type A” markers on their red blood cells, others have “B,” some have both, and some have none at all!

Activity: Fun fact: Knowing your blood type is important so doctors can give you the right kind if you need more!

Get the whole book:
100,000 Whys: A Fun Educational Coloring Book for Curious Kids
jessicabraidan.com/books/100000-whys.html